

Prophecy from the India Gate, New Delhi, Feb 18, 1999, by Lloyd Phillips

I am seeing a vision of a giant foot with a sandal on it, coming down from heaven, and I see the head of an old, large, well fed serpent about to be crushed. From this I see that the Lord is saying that the Lord is the foot and that the serpent has been the head. But the heel shall crush the head of the serpent, and His people, who have been the tail, and not the head, shall be the head, and not the tail in this nation. For too long people have allowed a serpent to be the head, and therefore they have been behind, and have been the tail. And so to have been God's people in this nation who have become part of the body of Christ, but remained behind the serpent. But the Lord is saying that the serpent's power shall be broken by the feet of the body of Christ. Even as the cobra raises its head in defiance to strike, it shows the crushed head of the defeated serpent. The serpent that has been crushed under the Lord's foot. Even when the serpent raises its head and is most deadly to the people of the world, it shows forth the Lord's prophecy that the head of the serpent shall be crushed. Even as the serpent, the devil, raises up to use power and authority, he shows the words of the Lord as true Words and must reveal that his head will be crushed by God's people. Too long the crushed serpent has been worshiped, and he has been allowed to make the people the tail, God's people must be the head. And the foot of the Lord shall also crush the head of the serpent python as the people of God who have been the tail, but shall be the head shall show. But the people of God will not crush the serpent's head only with their ears (to listen & learn), but by using their feet to walk (by going forth in power and authority). As they go out upon the things they are taught of the Lord, they will crush the head of the serpent and India shall be the Lord's (every place that the sole of your foot shall tread, the Lord has already given to us).
